Into the Jaws of Death: The Invasion of Normandy

The novel opens with the thunderous roar of artillery and the chilling cry of "Corpsman!" as American Marines storm the heavily fortified beaches of Normandy. Amidst the chaos and carnage, we meet Sergeant Michael "Irish" O'Brien, a seasoned veteran haunted by the ghosts of past battles. Alongside Irish and his loyal squad, we experience the harrowing reality of combat, where every step forward is met with fierce resistance and the specter of death lurks around every corner.

The Sands of Iwo Jima: A Battle for the Ages

As the war rages on, "Call To Arms: The Corps" transports us to the desolate volcanic shores of Iwo Jima, where the Marines face their greatest challenge yet. Lieutenant John "Jack" Carter, a young and idealistic officer, leads his men into a desperate battle against a fanatical Japanese enemy. Through their indomitable spirit and unwavering resolve, they overcome insurmountable odds, but the victory comes at a profound cost.
