- A former employee of the podcast, Max Temkin, публикует a blog post in which he alleges that he was bullied and harassed by Justin McElroy. Temkin's blog post includes a number of specific examples of alleged bullying, such as Justin making fun of Temkin's weight and appearance, and threatening to fire him.

- Justin McElroy issues an apology for his behavior, and Max Temkin accepts his apology.

2017:

- A fan of the podcast, who goes by the pseudonym "The Archivist," starts posting a series of tweets in which they allege that Justin McElroy has been bullying and harassing them for years. The Archivist's tweets include screenshots of alleged DMs from Justin McElroy, in which he makes threats and insults.
- Justin McElroy denies the allegations, and The Archivist's tweets are eventually deleted.

- A number of fans of the podcast start a petition calling for Justin McElroy to be fired. The petition is signed by over 10,000 people.
- MaxFun, the network that produces My Brother And Me, releases a statement in which they say that they are "aware of the allegations" against Justin McElroy, and that they are "taking them seriously."
- Justin McElroy takes a leave of absence from the podcast.

- Justin McElroy returns to the podcast. He does not address the allegations against him directly, but he does apologize for "any pain or hurt" that he may have caused.

- The controversy surrounding Justin McElroy continues to simmer, with fans and critics alike weighing in on the situation.

The My Brother And Me bully situation is a complex one with no easy answers. There is evidence to support both sides of the allegations, and it is difficult to say definitively what happened.

However, it is clear that the allegations have had a negative impact on the podcast. The podcast's audience has declined in recent years, and the controversy has damaged the reputation of the hosts.

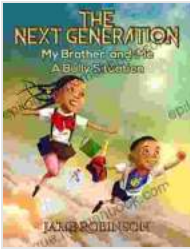

It is also clear that the allegations have had a negative impact on the McElroy brothers. Justin McElroy has apologized for his behavior, but he has not directly addressed the allegations against him. Travis and Griffin McElroy have also been affected by the controversy, and they have both spoken out against bullying and harassment.

The My Brother And Me bully situation is a reminder that bullying and harassment are never okay. It is important to speak out against bullying and harassment, and to support those who have been affected by it.

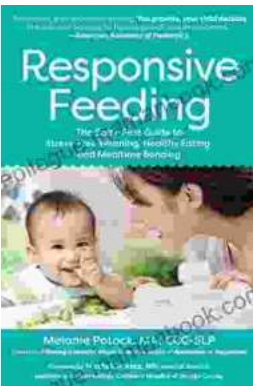

The My Brother And Me bully situation is a complex and ongoing one. It is unclear what the future holds for the podcast or the McElroy brothers. However, it is clear that the allegations have had a significant impact on both the podcast and the McElroy brothers.
