A Cosmic Twist on Christmas Traditions

This imaginative novella reimagines beloved Christmas traditions through a Lovecraftian lens. The familiar sights and sounds of the season are transformed into eerie and otherworldly experiences.

- Christmas trees are adorned with glistening tentacles and glowing orbs reminiscent of the Deep Ones.
- Gingerbread houses are crafted in the shape of ancient ruins, their sugary walls concealing unspeakable horrors.

- The jolly figure of Santa Claus is replaced by a deep-sea entity with a booming voice and a writhing beard of kelp.

Sutton's vivid and unsettling descriptions plunge the reader into a world where the boundaries between Christmas cheer and cosmic dread blur.
